To search for specific names, type keywords into the search bar in your PDF reader. If a keyword search doesn't turn up expected results, it is recommended that you also scroll down into the alphabetical listings to search for the name, as the text-recognition software is not perfect.

The table of contents below can also give you an idea of where to look within the document for other kinds of information listed in the directory, like street guides, government listings, and advertisement indices. Note that the PDF page number and the original directory page numbers are different, because the color-printed advertisement pages in the directories were not numbered.

PREFACE.

Herewith we present our twenty-sixth annual volume.

It is issued from the publisher's new offices, No. 10 Boerum Place, removal to wl ch was rendered necessary by reason of the large increase in our business demanding more room and greater facilities than our former offices afforded. The preparation of this volume, and of our new "Élite Directory for New York and Brooklyn," which was this year issued in advance of our City Directory, requires a large force of assistants, and considerable space. The "Élite Directory" contains the names of fully 54,000 householders of the best class in the two cities. This latter book will be an annual, and will, we believe, become in time quite as necessary and useful as the City and Business Directories. It is valuable to the tradesman beyond measure as a means of reaching buyers with his cards, circulars, etc. It is useful to the ladies in ascertaining the addresses of their friends and others, and it presents to all a compendious and thoroughly reliable guide to the best people of New York and Brooklyn in a neat, tasteful, and convenient form.

The City Directory this year contains 142,371 names, an increase over the number last year of 7,362 names.

Each letter of the alphabet is represented in this aggregate as follows:

| | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| A | 3,031 | F | 6,239 | K | 6,513 | P | 5,145 |

| C | 10,774 | H | 11,460 | M | 16,471 | R | 7,115 |

We expected a year ago that some scheme of rapid transit would be fairly toward completion in our city at this time, and that, per consequence, our population would have so augmented that a very much larger book than this would have been presented. We feel that the many advantageous places of residence within our city, as yet not availed of, would be eagerly sought for and used, if only the passage to and from them was speedy and comfortable. Our city has grown in spite of the primitive and disagreeable means of conveyance within it. Its increase will be in far greater proportion, and more lasting, when its facilities for local travel are more convenient. We hope soon to see such a system of railway in Brooklyn as will supply this great desideratum in a manner beneficial to all, and unjust to none.

We feel at liberty to ask every citizen of Brooklyn to assist us by sending to us in advance, or by leaving directions at home that our canvasser be given, upon his first call, the name and business address of the occupant of the house. It often happens that our canvasser is told that the lady of the house is engaged, or not at home, and to call again. Our time is so limited that great inconvenience and additional expense is entailed upon us by such neglect or refusal, and errors in spelling and initials of names are thus rendered possible, as the information from servants and ill-informed persons is very unreliable. Our ambition is to publish a Directory entirely reliable—to do it, we must have the hearty coöperation of the citizens.

BROOKLYN, JUNE, 1882.

Brooklyn Daily Times.

ESTABLISHED 1848.

(From the N. Y. Evening Telegram, February 2, 1880.)

No paper that has lived in a community for thirty-three years can be said to be without a history, without a title to respect, without a value as a measure of the social forces which animate and mould that community. Were the "Brooklyn Daily Times" of to-day only what it was up to the period of ten years ago, it would be still well worthy of a place in a series of sketches on American journalism. It happens, however, that no daily paper in this country has made more steady or more wonderful strides within the past ten years than the "Brooklyn Daily Times." Other journals date the era of their modern development to the American civil war. Since the excitement and inflation of war times nearly all American newspapers have labored heavily, and not a few have gone down in their struggle to keep appearances up to the mark of vanished war circulations and flush times. The prosperity of the "Brooklyn Times" is upon a surer basis. The way in which it has kept pace with the remarkable growth of the Eastern District of Brooklyn, in population and resources, is entertainingly told in the "Telegram's" article elsewhere. Brooklyn is to be congratulated upon having so flourishing a newspaper, and the circulation and patronage of the "Times" show that Brooklyn people appreciate the advantage of having a newspaper publisher who adequately reflects their enterprise.
